WELCOME! We're so happy you're here today. God delights in you, and He desires to draw close to you in this Holy Mass. If you're visiting St. Catharine for the first time, thank you for praying with us—we're honored by your presence. Please silence your phones and help us keep a spirit of reverence in the church. Restrooms can be found in the Undercroft and the Parish Center. If you need help, just look for someone wearing a green lanyard. We hope you'll join us again soon!

TO THE PARENTS of LITTLE ONES... Thank you for your courage and love in bringing your children to Mass. Even when it feels chaotic, your efforts matter more than you know. God sees every sacrifice, and your children's presence is a powerful witness of faith.

If your children have some extra wiggles or need to let out a few extra joyful noises, we have a large Quieting Room in the Church, as well as a video feed in the Parish Hall Gallery should you need to step out. But please do come back—we want you here!

TO OUR PARISH FAMILY... Children remind us that the Church is alive and growing. Their joyful noises are music to God's ears. Let's welcome them with kindness and support their parents with a smile of encouragement.

The Unofficial Guide to St. Catharine

By Fr. Frank Brown

Well, as I'm sure you're aware by now, this is my last Sunday at St. Catharine. I was only here for two years, but I've learned quite a bit, if you're interested:

- I. St. Catharine is actually located in Columbus, not Bexley, and people are confused by this.
- II. Bexley Park Rd. and Gould Rd. is not a four-way stop... almost learned that the hard way. Twice.
- III. Growing more than five pole bean plants is insane.
- IV. Middle school kids require almost three times the amount of condiments with their lunch than the other grades, which might be even more insane.
- V. At St. Catharine, people can simultaneously like their priest while also not wanting to look at him at Mass. Or, if they don't like the priest, at least here they have the opportunity of not having to look at him. Win-win either way.
- VI. Never again Google "Fun Fest Columbus Ohio." And, obviously by extension, "Fun Fest Bexley Ohio."
 - A. I also learned from Fun Fest that Columbus Police and Bexley Police both really like us... or it's possible they may also be confused about where St. Catharine falls on a map.
- VII. Flip-flops in the winter should be illegal.
- VIII. Living more than two miles from St. Catharine is not illegal, though I'm not convinced many in the parish know that.

I think by now you guys have caught on to my sense of humor, which—love me or hate me—often includes sarcasm. But I want to thank you all for everything, especially for being patient with me. We've had a lot of changes as far as staff, liturgy, the school, ministries, etc., which isn't always easy or desired. But again, thank you for being patient.

To the parishioners, staff, school, volunteers, Knights, Fr. Bob, and the deacons: thank you for everything, and I'm sure you'll see me around. Actually, I know you will, because I have to come cut down all these sunflowers, which I've now learned should follow the above pole bean rule. But enjoy them!

Love, Fr. Brown

DISCIPLE

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

If you're anything like me, you probably hear today's Gospel and immediately try to identify yourself with one type of seed Jesus talks about: the seed that fell on the path, the seed that fell on rocky ground, the seed among thorns, or the seed in good soil. But have you ever stopped to wonder why the sower is throwing seeds so haphazardly? This is worth meditating on, too. I believe it says to us that God is generously offering his grace and his mercy to everyone equally, in all places, at all times. But we aren't all in a place where we are open to receive that gift. In those moments when we feel as though we're not bearing the fruit that we hope to, perhaps it's time to examine our spiritual surroundings and see if there is something we can change that might help us to be more receptive to God's grace. Perhaps it's as simple as checking out a faith-sharing group that can help us tend our spiritual soil so it is ready to receive what God is doing out.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Our first reading from Isaiah speaks of the power and efficacy of God's word, comparing it to the rain and snow that come down and water the earth, making the soil fertile, helping the seed to grow into a bountiful harvest that can be made into bread that nourishes. What we grasp from all of this is that God's word bears fruit over time. As evangelizers, it's important to consider that we often won't see fruit right away when sharing God's word with others. That word must take root, grow, and be cultivated. This process will take time, but the long-term fruit is worth our sustained and patient effort as we nurture relationships of accompaniment with others.

PRAY

There's a certain patience we must exercise when sharing God's word with others. When I find myself struggling with impatience – with myself or with others' slow progress – I often find solace in the prayer “Trust in the Slow Work of God” from Pierre Teilhard de Chardin, SJ, particularly these lines: Above all, trust in the slow work of God / We are quite naturally impatient in everything to reach the end without delay / We should like to skip the intermediate stages / And yet it is the law of all progress that it is made by passing through some stages of instability – and that it may take a very long time.

LITURGICAL MINISTRY TRAINING

One of the greatest blessings of parish life is that each of us has been given gifts to build up the Body of Christ. Whether you are called to welcome someone into the Catholic faith or to serve at the altar during Mass, there are many opportunities to put your faith into action here at St. Catharine.

New & Refresher Ministry Training

Whether you are new to a ministry or currently serving, we ask that you attend one of the training sessions below. These sessions are intended for all current ministers as a refresher and for anyone interested in beginning a new liturgical ministry at St. Catharine. Even if you have not yet signed up, you are welcome to attend and learn more about serving in one of these important roles. All trainings will be held in the church.
